RE: PA State Grange Hires Public Relations/Membership Director

Carl Meiss, President of the PA State Grange, has announced the hiring of Stacy Bruker of Duncannon, Perry County, as the new Public Relations/Membership Director for the organization, effective January 3, 2011.

Bruker replaces Meiss who was elected President of the PA State Grange at their October 2010 State Convention. Meiss had served as the Public Relations/Membership Director since January 2003.

Stacy is a life-long Grange member and belongs to Community Grange #1767 in Perry County where she presently serves as their Secretary as well as the Perry County Pomona Grange #69. In 1987 she was the PA State Grange Junior Princess and later served as the PA State Grange Female Youth Ambassador.

Mrs. Bruker is a member of the Advisory Board of Downtown Daily Bread, serves as an officer of the Dellville United Methodist Church and is on the Entertainment Committee for the Perry County Fair. She has a Bachelor of Arts Degree in Economics from the University of Pittsburgh and lives with her husband Mac in Duncannon.
