PENNSYLVANIA STATE GRANGE

Founded in 1867, the Grange is a nonprofit, nonpartisan, fraternal organization for children and adults that advocates for rural America. With a strong history in grass-roots activism, family values and community service, the Grange is part of more than 200 communities across Pennsylvania.

OUR PURPOSE

The Pennsylvania State Grange believes that harmony, equitable compromise and earnest cooperation are essential to future success. Grange meetings offer a forum to help members grow as individuals, unify their communities and create opportunity through legislation and community service.

Through grassroots activism and community service, Grange has positively impacted the lives of Americans for over 150 years.

MEMBERSHIP

Grangers come from all backgrounds, and work together for the betterment of their communities. From rural farms to our towns and cities, Grange programs provide community service and outreach opportunities, scholarships for higher education, leadership training and fellowship. With the tools provided through the Grange, we build bridges between all generations, and connect families to communities.
