

“Education adds the greatest charm to woman”
and “We must reap for the mind as well as the body”

come from our traditional welcoming ceremony written in the late 1800s. Our commitment to education is just as strong today. With 73% of FFA members planning to pursue higher education, any financial assistance is beneficial. Scholarships are available through the State Grange for colleges and/or trade schools. Some of our county and local Granges offer additional scholarship opportunities.

The day
you take off
the blue jacket
for the last time
Have you asked ...
What's Next?

What can Grange membership mean to you?

- An opportunity to use your leadership skills to make a positive difference in your community.
- Extend your network and influence across the country. Sustain lifelong friendships.
- It's a great place to come with family for activities, to meet neighbors, to work and play together .

You have a voice in the Grange.

We are a family organization that embraces diversity, respect for all and believes all members, from teenagers to octogenarians, have full and equal rights. Tools such as parliamentary procedure guide us in preserving the rights of the individual while acting on the wishes of the majority.

Local Granges welcome new members.

What can the Grange do? Anything you can envision. Each local Granges expresses the interests of its members. Make a motion, get the Grange's support and then go to work. Organize a farmers market, candidate forum, issue debate, social event such as a dance. You are only limited by your imagination.

We strive to develop a better manhood and womanhood. We foster harmony, goodwill, mutual understanding and cooperation for agricultures' mutual protection and advancement. We value courtesy, honesty and fair dealings.

The Grange invests in its future by investing in its youth. As Franklin D. Roosevelt said "We cannot always build the future for our youth, but we can build our youth for the future." Our youth are leaders today and with leadership events at the state, regional and national level, they will carve a bright future for the Grange

In essentials, unity;

In non-essentials, liberty;

In all things, charity
