

CARL H. MEISS III

23rd MASTER OF THE PENNSYLVANIA STATE GRANGE

THE PERSON

Carl was born in Hazleton, Luzerne County but grew up in Cumberland County. After high school he attended West Point and then served as a police officer for 27 years, retiring in 2002

He married Judy Boyer in 1977 and in 1979 they purchased property and moved into the 5-mile limit of Three Mile Island in York County on the day of the TMI accident. He, Judy, and their son Travis joined Valley Grange #1360 in York County in 1996 after looking for an organization that all three of them could participate in. He had also been recruited to help at the Milkshake Booth at the PA Farm Show for years by Past Master Luther Snyder's family.

After his retirement in 2002, he was hired by the PA State Grange Master Betsy Huber as the Membership/Public Relations Director. During his eight years in that capacity, he assisted the State Master in Chartering four new Granges and re-organizing countless more as well as modernizing the “Grange Advocate.

Carl was elected as State Master in 2002 and served two terms. During that time, he Chartered one new Grange in Schuylkill County and worked diligently to save as many struggling Granges as possible. He also served on the University of Pennsylvania Veterinary School Board of Overseers.

Carl remains an active member of Valley Grange #1360 in York County as well as York/Adams Pomona Grange #40 where he has served as Master as both Valley and Pomona Granges.
